

Rockin' Baja

Home of the Big Baja Bucket

Rockin' Baja Lobster is a full service, Baja-Style cantina & grill whose menu items include buckets built for two, like their signature "Big Baja Bucket" and famous "Golden Sombrero Bucket", as well as the traditional tastes of tequila & lime prawns, carne asada, and fajitas de pollo. Rockin' Baja has been serving its customers their infamous buckets brimming with shrimp and lobster wrapped in warm tortillas since 1983. Their Puerto Nuevo style of cooking - where everything is flash fried and dusted with authentic Mexican spices - quickly became a favorite among local residents and tourists alike.
